

I support media diversity

I believe strongly in a diverse media; and I am writing to you today to comment on Docket No. 02-277, The Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules.

Democracy is built upon an informed public with access to diverse opinions. And in its goals to promote competition, diversity and localism in today's media market, I strongly believe that the FCC should retain all of the current media ownership rules now in question. These rules serve the public interest by limiting the market power of already huge companies in the broadcast industry.

In my opinion, allowing for the concentration of media will not serve the public good; and may ultimately lead to a neo-Joseph Goebbels controlling the airwaves, television and written media.

Thank you,

Lee C. Block